Kevin BERGLUND is scheduled to be released from IDOC custody (Centralia Correctional Center) on June 24th, 2016.

BERGLUND was arrested on September 30, 2014, by the Wilmette Police for an incident that occurred at a home on Old Glenview Road. In that incident the resident observed BERGLUND carrying a stool that appeared to have been pushed up next to his 11-year old daughter's bedroom window. He fled when confronted. It was later learned that he had also trespassed on the property of the Highcrest Middle School. He was charged with Attempted Residential Burglary, Disorderly Conduct and Criminal Trespass to a School.
