

Sesquicentennial Photography Project – Submission and Consent Guidelines

By submitting a photo or video for this project, you agree to grant the Village of Wilmette and Wilmette Historical Museum and their contractors and authorized agents a royalty-free, irrevocable right to reproduce, publish, distribute, perform, display, or otherwise feature the photograph or video in any and all media and for any and all purposes. By submitting a photo or video for this project, you further agree that the Village of Wilmette and the Wilmette Historical Museum shall have no obligation or requirement to provide any compensation of any kind to you or any other party.

Submitted photographs or video must not infringe the privacy rights, or any other rights of any person. It is the responsibility of each entrant to ensure that any photograph or video containing an image of a person has been taken with the permission of that person (or, when under 18, the consent of their parent or guardian) and any necessary permissions required to have their image submitted for this project have been obtained.

Submitted photographs or video must not infringe on the copyright of any third party. By submitting a photo or video, you acknowledge that you created the photo or video and that you own, or otherwise have the right to use, the associated copyright. Copyright of a photograph or video submitted for this activity remains with the respective entrants.

The Village of Wilmette and the Wilmette Historical Museum will not seek permission, and by your submission of the photo you agree to waive any such right to grant permission, to reuse an image after it has been submitted.

The Village of Wilmette and the Wilmette Historical Museum have no obligation to publish or use or retain any photographs or video you submit.