NEWS RELEASE
Prostitution Arrest

Wilmette Police proactively identified a new business was advertising massage services on prostitution related websites.

On January 20, 2022 an undercover officer received a massage at Asian Spa, located at 921 Ridge Road. During the massage the officer was propositioned for a sexual act in exchange for money. Additional officers entered the establishment and arrested the subject without incident. The subject was the listed owner and sole occupant in the business.

The subject was charged with one count of misdemeanor prostitution and released on bond.

The establishment is not lawfully allowed to operate at this time and is closed for business.
