Message from Chief Kyle Murphy

On behalf of the men and women of the Wilmette Police Department, I thank you for your interest in our annual report. The police department responds to roughly 18,000 call for service each year. We are a proud organization in a noble profession. Members of the department consistently demonstrate a commitment to providing ethical and professional law enforcement services to all citizens and the residents of the Village of Wilmette, the source of our authority.

In 2017, 11 cars were stolen from the community, all were left unlocked with the keys inside the vehicle. We also investigated 100 reports of burglary to auto. Again, the majority were all cases where the cars were left unlocked, force was only used in one instance. This pattern was not specific to Wilmette, however this practice of leaving vehicles unlocked has attracted a criminal element.

In December 2017, we began a social media presence to better connect and communicate with residents on a variety of public safety topics. This included educating and reminding residents of the importance of removing valuables, taking keys and locking the doors of vehicles.

This report is meant to provide a snap shot of the agency and provide some benchmark data for crime in the community. If we can be of assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact us and as always, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Kyle Murphy

Uniform Crime Reporting / Index Crimes

Crimes are counted through the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. The UCR program was developed in 1930 so that city, county and state law enforcement agencies would be able to provide the FBI with standard crime statistics. UCR crime statistics are used in many ways. Law enforcement agencies use the statistics in operation, management and administration. A community's crime index, or "crime rate" is based upon the total number of "Part 1" crimes. Part 1 crimes include murder, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, theft, motor vehicle theft and arson.

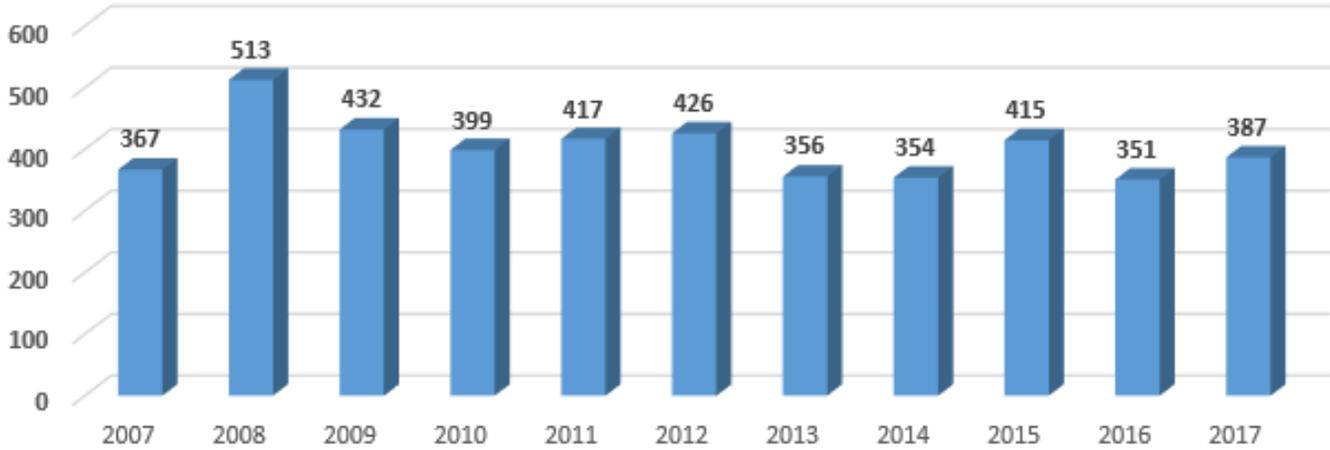

The UCR program classifies offenses using specific definitions so as to eliminate differences among various states' definitions of crimes. The UCR system collects data in summary forms showing one count for each offense reported. No indication as to the range of seriousness for each offense can be made. One offense is counted for each victim in crimes against persons, and one offense is counted for each distinct operation in crimes against property. If multiple types of offenses are committed during the same crime, only the most serious offense is reported through UCR using the Hierarchy Rule. Arson is an exception, and is always counted as an offense with the remaining offenses following the Hierarchy Rule. The Hierarchy Rule only applies to crime reporting and does not affect the number of charges for which a defendant may be prosecuted.

UCR data is collected nationwide in a manner that standardized the definition of offenses. However, a number of factors can influence crime in individual jurisdictions. These factors should be considered when using UCR crime statistics for comparison purposes:

- Population density and degree of urbanization of the locality and its surrounding area
- Variations in composition of the population
- Number of residents vs. "policing population", i.e. residents plus daily commuters
- Economic conditions, including job availability
- Modes of transportation and highway systems
- Citizen attitude toward crime and their crime reporting practices

2017 Uniform Crime Report Index Crimes

The FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program is a nationwide, cooperative statistical effort of nearly 18,000 city, university and college, county, state, tribal, and federal law enforcement agencies voluntarily reporting data on crimes brought to their attention. Since 1930, the FBI has administered the UCR Program and continued to assess and monitor the nature and type of crime in the Nation. The program’s primary objective is to generate reliable information for use in law enforcement administration, operation, and management; however, over the years the collected data has become one of the country’s leading social indicators. Criminologists, sociologists, legislators, municipal planners, the media, and other students of criminal justice use the data for varied research and planning purposes.

In 2017 the Wilmette Police Department handled 18,497 calls for service. Of those calls, 15,965 were responded to on the street as shown on the map above.

Officers respond to a variety of priority calls from the public and also engage in a host of self initiated activities like business checks, traffic details, community presentations, and foot patrol, are just a few examples.

Officers are assigned a patrol area each day but may respond to other areas of town as dictated by the call volume.

During 2017 the Wilmette Police conducted 3453 traffic stops. The “traffic stop” table summarizes data for stops, the reason for the stop, if a search of the vehicle was conducted and the result of the stop (citation/warning). The overall percentages of minority and non-minority drivers stopped in Wilmette during 2017 are virtually identical to the benchmark Northwestern University has determined to match the demographics for the Village of Wilmette.

The Wilmette Police Department patrol division is responsible for providing law enforcement services throughout the Village of Wilmette. The department divides the village into four patrol beats, to ensure timely police responses.

Technology continues to improve the overall service delivery that we provide to Wilmette residents. The department is always evaluating which programs and products provide the best officer safety and field functionality.

Computers have become an essential tool for officers on the street. Each patrol vehicle is equipped with a mobile data computer (MDC) that allows officers to perform criminal check inquiries and receive real-time call details. These computers offer the ability to simultaneously communicate with dispatchers and fellow officers in the field. This technology also enables electronic reporting of incidents, crashes and citations.

Cars are also equipped with digital video recorders that activate using certain criteria. As an example, when an officer turns on their emergency equipment, the DVR system will automatically start recording. The in car camera system also provides live streamlining of video from the street into the Communications Center, Supervisors' and Emergency Operations Centers. All marked units are equipped with these systems.

Patrol officers collaborate with the community to solve issues of mutual concerns through employment of proven tactics, in an attempt to reduce crime and improve the quality of life for residents. The patrol division focuses on community safety, while building positive relationships through daily contacts with citizens, community leaders, business owners and our local schools.

Training

Training for law enforcement officers is a vital and important part of delivering quality and professional police services to the community. The Wilmette Police Department is committed to maintaining well trained and professional police officers through quality, continual training and education.

The State of Illinois passed legislation requiring law enforcement to attend mandatory training in Police/Community Relations and Use of Force. These classes have become additional core classes that officers will be required to attend at regular intervals.

The department provided a total of 3,115 hours of training to officers in 2017. Supervisors and Police Administration attended 560 hours of management training, and over 800 department training hours were devoted to specialized/tactical training.

Congratulations Sergeant Girard

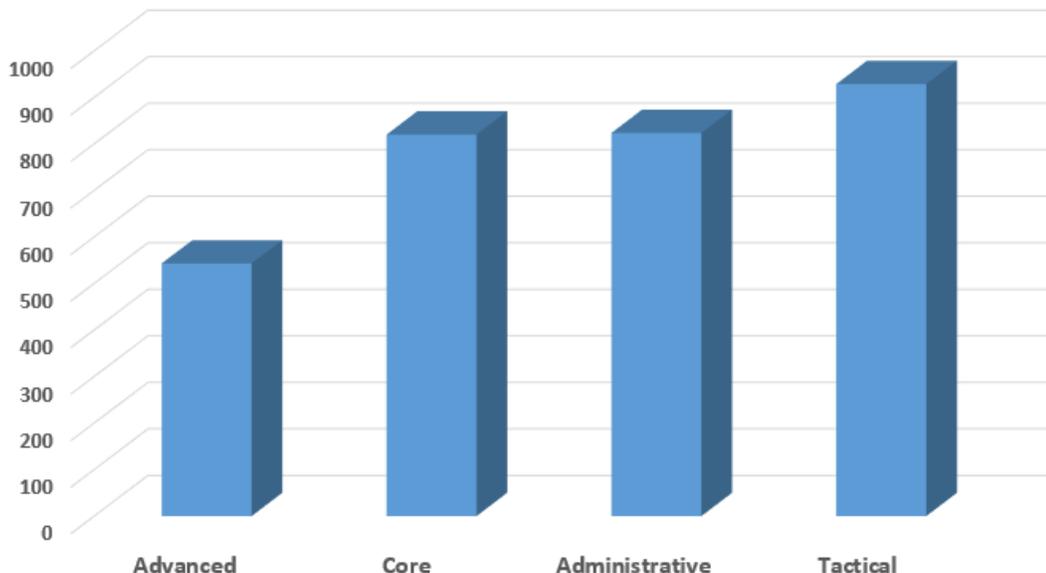

Sergeant Landon Girard graduated from Northwestern University's School of Police Staff and Command in December.

In 2017, Wilmette Police and Fire Department hosted and participated in numerous rapid response trainings. "Rapid Response" is the swift and immediate deployment of law enforcement personnel to an on-going, life threatening situation where a delayed deployment could otherwise result in death or great bodily injury to innocent persons.

Training Hours by Category

Recruiting

The Wilmette Police Department is dedicated to recruiting, selecting, training and retaining the highest quality police officer and support staff. The Village of Wilmette is an Equal Opportunity Employer and the WPD actively recruits any qualified person regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, or age. It is our goal to obtain a departmental work force consisting of the most qualified people who proportionally reflect the makeup of the available workforce in the area.

Bias Based Profiling

A review of statistics revealed no negative pattern or trend of biased based profiling in regards to citations issued during 2017. There were no complaints listed as bias based profiling during 2017.

Complaints/Internal Investigations

In 2017, there were no complaints alleging code of conduct violations by Wilmette Police Department employees, and only one internal procedural complaint.

Pursuits

There were ten vehicular pursuits in 2017, and WPD officers initiated each of them. Nine different officers were responsible for initiating the pursuits. Four of the pursuits were in response to a traffic violation, and the other six were in response to a theft or burglary. All pursuits were terminated by either the officer or the supervisor. Most were a half-mile or less, and shorter than 2 minutes in length. All but two of the pursuits were policy compliant.

Use of Force

There were ten use of force (UOF) incidents. Four instances had mental health components, and eight arrest situations. All incidents in 2017 were found to be justified, and within policy and state law. There were no complaints of excessive force in 2017.

Four types of force used in UOF incidents

Physical Restraint	5	(50%)
Pepperball Display	2	(20%)
Pepper (OC) Spray	1	(10%)
Firearm Displayed (Felony Stop)	2	(20%)

Firearm Displayed: merely displaying the firearm ended the incident without further use of force. All displays involved armed or reportedly armed suspects or the response was appropriate for the situation.

The number of types of force used outnumber the reported incidents due to more than one type of force used in the same incident.

Communications

The Emergency Communications Center is staffed 24 hours a day 365 days of the year. The Emergency Communications Center, or Dispatch as it is commonly called, receives calls from citizens via both 911 and non-emergency telephone numbers. Calls are screened to determine whether a response is required, and if the need is for police, fire and/or ambulance assistance.

The Wilmette Police Department uses a call priority and classification system to ensure that those needing help most urgently get the fastest possible response. All telephone and radio conversations involving the Emergency Communications operations are recorded and strict attention to accuracy, speed and quality are maintained. The Emergency Communications Center is staffed by full-time and part-time Communications Officers.

Records

The Records Section is responsible for the processing, distribution, and retention of all police documents. These documents include offense reports, crash reports, traffic citations, arrest and search warrants and any supporting documents. The Records Section also serves as a citizen support center taking calls and speaking face to face with the citizens and visitors of Wilmette. The Records Section receives and processes Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests related to police activity, handles parking violation complaints and directs citizens to the appropriate officer for incident related complaints. Dissemination of information must comply with department, state and federal laws, guidelines and confidentiality procedures. There are two full-time and two part-time employees that work this section, open Monday - Friday from 8am to 5pm.

Investigations Division

The Investigations Division is supervised by Sergeant Mike Robinson and is made up of four detectives, and one school resource officer. Detectives are trained, experienced investigators who specialize in the investigation of deaths as well as crimes such as burglary, robbery, assault and battery, auto theft, and identity theft. During the course of an investigation, detectives may be called upon to interview witnesses and victims, to interrogate suspects and offenders, and to examine crime scenes for physical evidence with which to identify suspects.

Detectives are assigned to follow up on crimes that were initially reported to the uniformed patrol division. A case might be assigned to a particular detective due to an on-call status or because it involves his/her area of expertise. Detectives are subject to call-in 24 hours/day, 7 days/week, and members of the division are often called upon to work with other local, state, or Federal agencies to assist with more serious or complex cases. Detectives also conduct background checks for potential Village employees.

In 2017, there were 582 cases assigned for investigation as follows:

* Financial crimes include: fraud, forgery, identity theft, and unlawful use of credit cards.

 Theft includes regular theft and retail theft.

Scams

Frauds and scams were prevalent in Wilmette in 2017. These cases included an elderly victim wiring several thousand dollars to an unknown person because she believed him to be an IRS agent. Descriptions of some of the most common scams that request wire transfers or the purchase of prepaid debit cards or gift cards are detailed below for your information.

Scam Type	Details of the Scam
IRS Scam	The Internal Revenue Service has demanded immediate payment for back taxes. They threaten an arrest warrant will be issued. The real IRS advises that they will never place a telephone call to your home regarding your return.
Utility Scam	Similar to the IRS scam, except it is a gas or electric company claiming to shut your heat or power off is payment if not made immediately over the phone. If you have any doubt - call your utility company regarding any issue.
Bail Bond Scam (aka grandparent scam)	You have been told a family member has been in an accident or arrested, is in jail and they need you to send money for bail, lawyer fees or other damages. Often, the arrest or accident reportedly happened outside of the country. Call your family member to verify.
Lottery/Sweepstake	You won a contest, sweepstake or lottery and must send money up front to pay the taxes and claim your prize. If it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.
Tech Support	You have been told that your computer is broken, hacked or has a virus and you are asked to send money so that it can be repaired. Some more advanced ones appear that your computer has been "taken over" by the FBI.
Internet Sales or Online Job	You were selling something on the internet or recently started a "secret shopper" or work from home job and received a check for too much money. You were instructed to deposit the check and wire back the extra money. Check with the purchase agreement or employer for errors.

IS THIS A SCAM? IT USUALLY IS !

Heroin Forum in Wilmette

The Wilmette Police Department is conscious of opioid abuse among young adults in the community. Police has seen heroin play a consistent part in criminal incidents and drug overdoses. This experience is consistent with municipalities all around the Chicago metropolitan area. Heroin is cheaper and more readily available to our youth now than any other time in our recent history. Perhaps more significantly, young adults do not comprehend the destructive nature of this drug.

On May 11th, the Wilmette Police Department, in partnership with the Wilmette Public Library, hosted a forum on heroin use at the Wilmette Public Library. The forum was geared towards educating parents of young adults on the current dynamics of this trend and, more importantly, to convey prevention and intervention strategies.

Police officials were on hand to discuss the current data and provide information on the signs and symptoms of heroin addiction.

Law Enforcement Accreditation

The Wilmette Police Department is a nationally accredited police agency through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). Our department received its first accreditation in 1986, making it the 3rd in Illinois and of the first police departments nationally. Wilmette police department has since received successful reaccreditation in 1991, 1996, 1999, 2002, 2005, 2009, 2012, 2015 and most recently 2018.

The department had an onsite visit by two assessors in December of 2017. Chief Gary Vest from Ohio and Lieutenant Jeff Dodson from Virginia reviewed policies, toured the facility, and interacted with the community. This approach was classified as “Gold Standard”, and took a comprehensive view of a department’s services and procedures.

Law enforcement accreditation is a voluntary and ongoing process that requires an agency to develop a comprehensive, well thought out, uniform set of written directives that assist the department in reaching their organizational goals.

Accreditation standards provide the necessary reports and analyses a Chief needs to make fact-based, informed management decisions. Accreditation strengthens our accountability, both within the department and the community, through a continuum of standards that clearly define authority, performance and responsibilities.

Social Media

The Wilmette Police Department is officially on social media! We have an account with Nextdoor, Facebook, and Twitter so we can better communicate and connect with you about safety tips, crime alerts, etc.

We would like to focus on two main safety campaigns in 2018: “Lock it or Lose it” and “9PM Routine”. “Lock it or Lose it” is a national crime prevention campaign which reminds residents that the simple act of locking your car will greatly decrease the odds of becoming a victim of motor vehicle burglary. The “9PM Routine” is used in the evenings to remind people to lock up their homes and vehicles, secure their valuables, and to report any suspicious activity to their local police force.

ILLINOIS SPECIAL OLYMPICS

The Wilmette Police Department is one of the most active departments in the state with Special Olympics. In 2017 WPD collected $9,140 in donations. WPD participated in the Polar Plunge, Plane Pull, Cop on Rooftop, and Torch Run fundraising efforts. Wilmette Police Department has set a goal to raise more than $10,000 in 2018.
